

Topic Selection for your project- Be Brave- Be Controversial!

- 1. Pick a topic that inspires, challenges and motivates you to learn more! It can be political (E.G strikes and pay) historical (E.G. the holocaust), or social (E.G gender and young people today)
- 2. Research your Topic, learn about it, understand it, understand its impact.
- 3. Read the news, online or buy a newspaper! NOT just social media. Fact check your research, watch the news on TV, think about how stories have been edited or softened.
- 4. Your issue should be contemporary and be something that directly affects you or someone you know. You should have an emotional connection to your theme, select something that you feel passionately about.
- 5. It must be possible to complete first and second hand research on your chosen theme.
- 6. You should be able to research and understand the issues in as much depth as possible to ensure your outcomes are meaningful.

Your research- Your way!

1. Present information in the form of images, information, notes, opinions, drawings, sketches, collage, first hand photos, illustrations and other relevant artists.
2. Be Brave!
3. Overlap and layer up research OR have bold double pages of just one drawing. Either way, your pages need IMPACT!
4. Own it! Your book, your project, your ideas.
5. Consider presenting this as a mini-sketchbook, a board or any inventive format you like!
